

Step 4 - Learn to Navigate the Websites

Learn to navigate the Accelerate The Dream website.

The Accelerate The Dream website will get your customers excited and motivated. Here we build the "Dream" and financial possibilities that are afforded you and your new team members. Why do we say team? Because we are all in this together. Develop your team as though you would hire them yourself. Pick like minded, self-motivated individuals like yourself.

Study the "Video Presentation" part of the website.

This will quickly motivate your new prospect to action and will create excitement in the many marketing aspects of the Consumers First Business Model. (Make sure when presenting this aspect of the site, they have a CABLE or DSL connection, other wise, if on dial-up, use the audio part of this presentation with your flip chart)

Study the "Opportunity" section next.

Set a presentation goal. How many presentations will you give this week? Try for at least 3 per week.

Next learn the "Fast Start", aspect of the site.

Learn it, study it, so that you can explain the program and that it becomes second nature. This is critical to your success. Think of it, you could have the greatest opportunity in the world, but if you couldn't explain it to anyone, you would not be as successful. Until you really know the material, use your Master Mind List and let the professionals at the Woodis Group help you. All you have to do is pick up the phone. Learn and explore the many resources that are available to you with the Woodis Group. Study and learn at your own pace. Have fun and help others.

Learn to navigate the "Consumer First", website. www.consumer1st.com

Be sure and study the Consumer First website. Learn about the history of the company and why it was formulated. Study and learn every thing you can about your the company whom you will be working with.

Set your browser to open at www.consumerfirstnews.com This is where you will find all the updated information and success stories of the company. Get familer with some of the most successfull people in the company.

Study and learn to navigate both websites.

People respect someone that is well informed. Remember, a "Reader is a Leader". Read, Study, and stay involved. Remember, "The Person At The Top Of The Mountain, Didn't Just Fall There!" Duplicate this wealth-building system with those you enroll and you will be laying the foundation to become a financially independent.
